Dear Mr. Ambassador:

The purpose of this letter is to set forth the terms of our agreement governing this law firm's representation of the Government of the Argentine Republic with respect to your efforts to lease a facility in Washington, D.C. to serve as your consulate and to obtain the requisite approvals from federal and municipal authorities.

For our part, we will work with you and your representative in negotiating the most favorable terms possible in your proposed lease, and we will represent the Argentine Government before the relevant federal and local agencies -- such as the Department of State, the District of Columbia Zoning Board, and the Area Neighborhood Council -- that are involved in the process of granting approval. We will provide you with a monthly itemization of all fees and expenses incurred in connection with this particular matter.

For your part, the Government of the Argentine Republic agrees -- on a timely basis -- to reimburse Williams & Connolly for all expenses and fees incurred in connection with this

RE: Letter Agreement

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

The purpose of this letter is to set forth the terms of our agreement governing this law firm's representation of the Government of the Argentine Republic in the United States of America.

(1) Services to be Rendered

At your request and under your direction, this law firm will represent the Argentine Republic as needed and on a case-by-case basis on matters to be identified by you or your representative.

(2) Term of Agreement

This agreement is for Calendar Year 1990 and is renewable on a year-by-year basis.

(3) Billing

Every month, we will forward to you an itemized statement of all out-of-pocket expenses and legal fees incurred in connection with our representation. Fees for services will be billed in accordance with the normal hourly rates of the attorneys working on the representation and will be charged against the annual retainer fee. We will provide you with computer printouts describing in detail the services performed by each attorney working on this representation. Out-of-pocket expenses will include costs incurred during the course of the representation such as travel, copying, messenger service, long distance telephone charges, etc., and will also be charged against the annual retainer fee.

CRIMINAL DIVISION

(4) Terms of Payment

For this representation, the Argentine Republic agrees to pay Williams & Connolly an annual retainer fee in the sum of $60,000. That fee is to be distributed to the law firm on a quarterly basis. Payments of $15,000 to the law firm will be made on January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1, 1990. It is understood that the first payment may be delayed until such time as final approval of this agreement has been received from Buenos Aires.

(5) Annual Accounting

At the end of Calendar Year 1990, there will be a full accounting of the fees and expenses incurred in the course of the year as charged against and deducted from the annual retainer fee. If the fees and expenses incurred during Calendar Year 1990 exceed the annual retainer fee, we will bill you for the outstanding balance. If, on the other hand, there is a balance remaining in the annual retainer fee after all fees and expenses for Calendar Year 1990 have been charged against that retainer and deducted, the excess will be credited to the retainer fee for the following Calendar Year.

(6) Right of Review

Either party has the right to ask for a joint review of the status of the account -- fees and expenses as compared with annual retainer fee -- during the course of the Calendar Year and can request an adjustment in the Terms of Payment.

(7) Right of Termination

Either party has the right, with thirty days notice, to terminate this agreement or to request a re-negotiation of the Terms of Payment.

WILLIAMS & CONNOLLY

The Honorable Guido DiTella

(8) Real Estate Exclusion

It is understood that a different, separate agreement governs the terms of this law firm's representation of the Argentine Republic in connection with the sale of certain real estate and the location and acquisition of a new facility. This letter agreement of December 21, 1989 does not govern the terms of payment for legal services rendered in connection with that other representation.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter indicating your acceptance and understanding of the terms of this representation. If you have questions with respect to this letter or with respect to any aspect of our billing practices, please feel free to communicate with me directly.

We are honored to be of service to you and to your government, and we look forward to working with you.

Sincerely yours,

Gregory B. Craig
